
ALYSON ROBBEN

PROFILE

- Intern at the Mayor's Office of Cultural Affairs working on the development of the City's Arts and Culture Plan
- Experienced in fundraising, grant writing, event planning and program development.
- Strong background in theatre, music, production, management and problem resolution
- Proficient in various forms of technology (Microsoft Office, Go To Meetings, etc)

EDUCATION

MASTERS OF ARTS IN ARTS LEADERSHIP (2014- PRESENT)

University of Houston, Houston, Texas

BACHELOR OF THE ARTS (2003)

Florida State University, Tallahassee, Florida

~ Major in Theatre, honors program

EXPERIENCE

TEACHING

HISD Associate Teacher, Houston, Texas (2014-present)

North Ft. Myers Academy for the Arts (K-8 Theatre), North Ft. Myers, FL (2008-2014)

Trafalgar Middle School (Chorus and Musical Theatre), Cape Coral, FL (2003-2004)

ADMINISTRATION

Drobnic and Associates (Office Manager), Fort Myers, Florida (2005-2007)

PROJECTS

Capital Campaign planning for school improvement plan

Major productions involving 40-150 students, cross-curricular in academic classes K-8

- Shakespeare productions in full Elizabethan dialect

- Musicals selected for large cast involvement and academic value

Arts Alive Week- school wide arts/academic showcase (performances, auction, award show)

LEADERSHIP

Director of Theatre Department

Associate Department Head for Fine Arts

Arts Foundation- Event coordinator, Fund Development

Arts Integration Coordinator- Development of K-8 initiatives

Professional Learning Communities (PLC's) leadership team

Federal A.I.M. Grant development team

AFFILIATIONS

Arts Schools Network- Arts Integration and Membership Committees

Florida Association of Theatre Education

Florida Alliance for Arts Education- evaluator for Arts Model School applications

Educational Theatre Association

Alliance for the Arts